

Foreword

As church musicians, we are privileged to express our worship through the playing of so many great hymns of our faith. It is the great hymn texts that inspire the music in varying degrees of praise and worship. Whether sung by choirs and congregations or performed by church pianists and organists, the familiarity of the words merged with timeless melodies serve as the centerpiece to worship services. Portions of each hymn text are included in this collection to remind, encourage, and inspire you as you play. God’s grace is His unmerited favor and it draws us closer to Him. May these arrangements not only serve as service music in your church but speak to your heart in ways that remind you of His great love and Amazing Grace!
