What to Teach When

A Thoughtful and Engaging Music Curriculum

Brian Hiller and Don Dupont

Grades K–5 • Whether you are a new music educator or a seasoned veteran, you will never again have to ask “what to teach when.” Following their elemental approach, this easy-to-adopt curriculum from master teachers Brian Hiller and Don Dupont targets developmentally appropriate skills that every second and third grade student should master in the areas of melody, rhythm, form, timbre, and texture. All visuals are available on the included CD, prepared for you in full color.
